Impact: Voting is our constitutional right. I consider it very important because the entire country's socio-political situation for the next five years depends on it. It is time for young people to not only go and vote but also consider politics as a career. The most important issue under discussion this year is communal disharmony. Also, as a young person I feel it is time to revamp the entire education system; this will have a multiplier effect on the economy for generations to come.
